THE THORNTONS, OF "ORMESBY"

The Thorntons came from Yorkshire, England, and settled in York and Gloucester counties, and their descendants were soon found in Caroline, Essex and adjacent counties. York county records show that this family was represented there as early as 1646.

When Caroline was formed the Thorntons were already established within the territory of the new county. The first member of the family to become actively identified with Caroline is referred to in Slaughter's "St. Mark's Parish," as "Francis Thornton, of Caroline, Gentleman." Records in the Clerk's Office of Spotsylvania dated 1736 and Orange 1737 refer to "Francis Thornton, of St. Mary's Parish in Caroline."

Francis Thornton had several daughters of whom one married William Buckner, one General William Woodford and one James Taylor who represented Caroline in the House of Burgesses for several terms.

Reuben Thornton, of Drysdale Parish in Caroline was b. _____, and d. in 1768. He m. the widow of Henry Willis, of Spotsylvania. His will which was proved in Caroline court in May, 1768, devised his property to his nieces Mary Woodford, Lucy Gilmer, Mildred Washington and his nephews, James Taylor, Richard Buckner, Thornton Washington and others. Thornton Washington was the son of Samuel Washington and the nephew of George Washington. Dr. Hugh Mercer also shared in this estate. The will was witnessed by William Buckner, Matthew Gale, Anthony Thornton and George Todd. William Woodford was named one of the executors.

John Thornton, of Caroline m. Mildred Gregory, by whom he had four daughters: Mildred, Mary, Elizabeth and Lucy. Mildred, m. Samuel Washington, brother of George Washington; Mary m. General William Woodford; Elizabeth m. John Taliaferro, of "Dissington," in King George county; and Lucy m. John Lewis, of Spotsylvania.

Anthony Thornton built "Ormesby" about the year 1715. He brought to this new estate his bride who was the daughter of Colonel John Presley, of "Northumberland House" in Northumberland county. Upon the death of Anthony Thornton, I, his son Anthony, II, inherited the estate and made it his home. Anthony, II, was Sheriff of Caroline. When he died "Ormesby" passed into the hands of his son, Anthony, III, who was county lieutenant of Caroline, and who held the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel in 1777. He commanded the militia of Caroline county at the siege of Yorktown. At the close of the War of the Revolution, Colonel Thornton sold "Ormesby" to his brother, Thomas Griffin Thornton and removed to Kentucky. Thomas Griffin Thornton was probably the most famous fox-hunter of his day and files of the old sporting magazines of the period contain many stories of his hounds. He was murdered, while Sheriff, by a man against whom he had a writ.

James Bankhead Thornton was born in 1770 and died in 1843. He lived at "Mt. Zephyr," but whether it was built by him is not definitely known. He was Justice of the Peace in Caroline in 1802. He married a daughter of Colonel Anthony Thornton. "Mt. Zephyr" was advertised for sale in 1845 and passed into the hands of the White Family. It is now owned by Mr Brooks.

The Calendar of State Papers (Virginia) contains several letters to and from Colonel Anthony Thornton. From one of these we learn that at the time it was written there were 644 Caroline men under arms. Governor Nelson writes Colonel Thornton to have all the flour he can get in Caroline shipped from Port Royal round into the Piankatank with all possible dispatch. Col. Thornton writes Colonel Davies under date of May 1, 1782, that "clothing for the army, due from Caroline, has been ready at Bowling Green for some months."

Charles Thornton, of "North Garden," was a captain of militia in the War of 1812. He m. Sarah Fitzhugh, of "Bellair," Stafford county and removed to Oldham county, Ky.

George Thornton was born in Caroline November 18, 1752. He m. on June 9, 1774, to Margaret Stanley, the daughter of Moses Stanley and removed to that territory which afterward became Greene county, Va. He was a soldier in the War of the Revolution and afterward received a pension. He died on August 30, 1853, at the age of 101 years. Mrs. J. C. Gentry, of Atlanta is one of his many descendants.

Robert Horsley Thornton, another one of his descendants, m. Louisa, dau. of Rev. Charles Wingfield, of Albemarle.

*NOTE.—Thousands of personal names appear in this work and to list all would require more time and space than the Author has at his disposal. Possibly this index, incomplete as it is, may be better than none at all. But little more than this can be claimed for it.

In the volume will be found alphabetical lists of all Soldiers, Burgesses, Delegates, Senators, Congressmen, Merchants, Physicians, Churchmen, Justices, Attorneys, Sheriffs, Clerks, Masons, Marriage bonds, Land Grants, Obituaries, Daughters of the Confederacy, etc. (See Contents.)

In addition to these the Genealogist will find hundreds of names scattered through the Legislative petitions and elsewhere in the body of the work. Many of these, however, also appear in the Genealogical section of the volume in connection with the families to which they belong.
