To get these clothes, 'tis plain to see
You must get the make that's known to thee.
The NATIONALLY ADVERTISED lines, you know,
Are the only lines we ever show.

We have the STYLE-PLUS Suits and Coats,
That take the prize from Coast to Coast.
They're the only clothes from Cal. to Maine,
On which the price remains the same.

Another things that's very nice,
Is a Suit that's tailored by EDV. PRICE.
This suit must fit without a doubt,
Or we want let you take it out.

THE WALK-OVER SHOE you cannot beat,
Its the very shoe that fits your feet.
We also have the BEACON SHOE—
Perhaps this line appeals to you.

The McDONALD SHIRT, it's Union-Made,
It lays all others in the shade.
For dress the ARROW SHIRT is fine,
It pleases the wearer all the time.

And the TIGER, too, comes close behind.

Are the swellest in the town, we know.

There is no other quite so fine.

You buy for less than a dollar note.

The IRELAND GLOVE, it is the best
That you can find in town, for dress.
We have GRINNELL for work that's rough,
They're made of leather, soft and tough.

With PHOENIX HOSE, and such as these
Are best of all as shown by test.
So read right on and get the rest.

Now don't forget the little boys,
Who must have clothes as well as toys.
In this department I most complete
We dress them up from head to feet.
