Hi Winston,

Judging from your email, I think you have it correct. I will attach an MS Word document showing a summary of my own research into this family for your interest. Thanks for the PDF - I'll have a look and get back to you if I have anything further to add.

The link you gave to the Blackfordby christenings is my own site, from transcripts that I made from the Bishops Transcripts, which were, if I recall correctly, extremely difficult to decipher.

Regards and best wishes, Brett

Brett,

Based on further information I found, particularly the small size of Boothrope, there must be a connection. I'm working backwards from John Henry EYRE/AYRE (1854-1931) who emigrated to the US in 1879. I've attached my information and sources for his ancestors as I now know them. Here is the progression of the steps I took.

John Henry EYRE's christening record, 6 Aug 1854 St. Alkmund's church in Derby (FamilySearch), lists his parents as William EYRE and Ann EYRE (no maiden name).

I found the family in the 1851 (St. Werburgh Parish), 1861, 1871 & 1881 Census (61-81 in St. Alkmund Parish). The surname name changes from HAIR (1851) to AYRE (1861) to EYRE (1871 & 1881). Based on ages given, William's birth year ranges from 1812 to 1814. The location given is Boothrope. Based on ages given, Ann's birth year ranges from 1821 to 1823. The location given is Tonge.

The only marriage record I could find for a William HAIR and Ann ___ was for William HAIR and Ann BANCROFT, 27 Dec 1842 in Ashby de la Zouch (FamilySearch), which I assumed were John Henry's parents. The record also listed William's father as Joseph HAIR, and Ann's father as John BANCROFT. The oldest child in the family was William HAIR Jr. born 14 Jan 1844 in Boothorpe (FamilySearch & Census), about a year after the marriage.

I found Ann BANCROFT's christening record (FamilySearch) with 2 Dec 1821 in Breedon On The Hill, which is very close to Tonge. Ann's parents are listed as John and Susannah BANCROFT.

Based on William HAIR's marriage record naming his father as Joseph, I found a William HAIR christening record (FamilySearch), 3 Mar 1811 in Blackfordby, parents Joseph and Martha HAIR. There was another William HAIR christened in Blackfordby 7 Jun 1812, but his parents were listed as James and Elizabeth HAIR. I don't know if this is the same William HAIR you mentioned as being christened 9 Jun 1812, child of Thomas & Lydia HAIR, or is still another William.

Based on another source for christenings in Blackfordby, http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~brett/blackfordby/bfordby_bap_ei.html

I see during the 1790s through the 1810s there were several HAIR couples having children: William & Hannah, Thomas & Hannah, John & Ann, James & Elizabeth, Thomas & Lydia and Joseph & Maratha. Perhaps these men were brothers or cousins?

I would appreciate your thoughts on all of this based on your research.
Thanks.

Hi Winston,

I believe there is a possibility that this may be the family of William HAIR, baptised 9 Jun 1812, son of Thomas HAIR (1788-1871) and Lydia APPLETON (c1786-1871). Thomas HAIR was originally from Boothorpe but the family moved to Swadlincote prior to 1841. I have further information about the family if you are interested.
