RIOT ALARM

Sounded in the Streets of Lexington and the Citizens Thrown Into a Fever of Excitement.

GOV. BRADLEY CALLS OUT THE TROOPS

Another Report of Trouble in Manchester and Impending Bloodshed the Cause of the Call; Troops Ready to Move When the Order is Countermanded. Boys Disappointed.

DEPUTY SHOT WHILE MAKING AN ARREST

LONDON, Ky., July 7.—(Associated Press)—Deputy Sheriff Jim Stubbfield of the White faction was fatally shot on Thursday in Manchester, Clay County, by Tom Smith, who is related to the Barkers.

Smith escaped up Crane Creek. The Whites organized a posse soon afterward and started in pursuit. The Jones and Smith, who are relatives, learned the posse had started to reach Smith. All arms were armed and a big battle is held for, but no news has been received as yet. Crane Creek is nearly six miles from here.

RIOT ALARM SOUNDED.

Substance of the above telegram was telegraphed to Governor Bradley at Frankfort Friday evening and at 7:50 o'clock Colonel Roger Smith of the 10th Kentucky Regiment, who was at Camp Cassin, received a telephone message immediately from Governor Bradley ordering him to take two companies of the 10th and go to Manchester by special train at the earliest possible date. Assembly call was made and Colonel Williams ordered Company 1, who was encamped at Chautauqua, to fall in and march to the city as quickly as possible.

WHY ORDER WAS COUNTERMAND.

In his message to Colonel Williams ordering out the troops Governor Bradley said that he had been reliably informed that a man had been killed at Manchester and that more trouble was imminent. He also said that the Frankfort company had been ordered to the scene and would join the Lexington company here. The order countermanding the call stated that Governor Bradley had been reliably informed that a deputy sheriff at Manchester had been shot while making an arrest, but the man who did the shooting was not a member of either faction engaged in the feud and the troops were not needed, therefore he countermanded the order.

Several private messages were sent to London inquiring about the trouble, and in answer to one of them stated that Deputy Sheriff James Stubbfield had attempted to arrest Matt Smith Thursday night, was shot in the arm and leg, that both members had been amputated and that the man would die. The telegram further stated that Smith was not a member of either of the warring factions and no further trouble was anticipated.

PEOPLE CROWD THE STREETS.

The Associated Press telegram, however, states that Smith is a member of the White faction and that the White faction had organized a posse and were in pursuit of Smith, who had escaped to Crane creek.

MY YET HAVE TO GO.

If the Associated Press telegram is authentic, then trouble may be expected at any moment, and the troops may be ordered to Clay county at any hour. Col. Williams will continue with Gov. Bradley today on the matter, and it is possible that he will keep the men in readiness to move on short notice.

Quartermaster Berkley left Frankfort on the C. & O. Friday evening for Manchester as soon as he learned that the troops had been ordered, to prepare a camp for them, but when the order was countermanded he was stopped by telegram at Corbin and ordered to return.

The calling out of the men will cost the State several hundred dollars, as every man who appeared at the army

FRANKFORT BOYS READY

FRANKFORT, Ky., July 7.—(Associated Press)—The Clay county feudists caused another stir among the State officers tonight. Tonight a special train was in waiting to take the soldiers to the disturbed district in case their presence is necessary to keep peace among the warring mountaineers. The companies warned of the possible call are at Frankfort, Lexington, Winchester and Peease Valley.

Today's commotion was caused by a rumor that Stubbfield had been returned at Manchester and several persons had been killed. Later it was found that the reports had originated from the shooting at Manchester last night of Deputy Sheriff Stubbfield by Matt Smith, said to be a Baker follower, whom he was trying to arrest. Stubbfield will die. Smith escaped, but a posse is pursuing him. He is a desperate fellow; was returned from the penitentiary for shooting his step-father.

M'LEAN

WILL ACCEPT THE GOVERNORIAL NOMINATION IF OFFERED HIM.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—(Associated Press)—John R. McLean, on being questioned today as to whether he would be a candidate for the Ohio Democratic gubernatorial nomination, made this statement: "If the Democrats of Ohio give me the nomination and my friends ask me to take it, I will accept." Further than this he declined to talk.

ONESIDED

WAS THE REGATTA FOR THE SILVER GOBLLET—LEANDERS WON.

HENLEY-ON-THAMES, July 7.—(Associated Press Cable.)—The regatta for a silver goblet was a very one sided affair, Leander being a length ahead a quarter of a mile from the start. Leander continued in the lead and easily won by a length and a quarter in six minutes and thirty seconds. The stewards' challenge cup race was a runaway affair. Although the Germans got away first and led to the top of the island, they steering low, then a lot of ground and the Magdalen crew, rowing splendidly, won by five lengths, time, 7:51.

TO BEAT BRYAN.

NEW YORK, July 7.—Ex-Senator Gorman, whose friends are booming him as the Eastern and Southern gold candidate on a tariff reform and anti-trust platform, calling upon Judge Augustus Van Wyck yesterday, the Judge is Tammany's candidate for President, and Gorman is Cracker's second choice. The meeting caused the circulation of the report that they had agreed upon a combination of forces to kill off the Bryan boom. Gorman, who denies he entertains any desire to be nominated by the next Democratic convention is known to favor Judge Van Wyck. Tammany leaders are helping the Van Wyck boom along.

BRYAN AT COLUMBUS

Principal Guest at a Banquet Given by the Young Men's Democratic Club.

MAKES STRONG ADDRESS

COLUMBUS, O., July 7.—(Associated Press)—About 1,000 persons attended the banquet given by the Young Men's Democratic Club of Columbus in the Auditorium tonight. The affair was strictly Democratic in its simplicity, all classes being represented. There were also a large number of ladies in the assemblage.

The chief guest was Col. William Jennings Bryan, at table with whom were also seated Hon. C. T. Callahan and George Fred Williams, of Massachusetts, Judge Tarvin, of Kentucky; Hon. Allen Thurman, of Columbus; the toast master and a number of others prominent in State politics. The entrance of Col. Bryan was greeted by an outburst of applause which lasted until he was seated. Hon. Christopher T. Callahan, of Massachusetts, was the first speaker, responding to the toast, "The Issues." He dwelt particularly upon Imperialism, trusts and free silver as the leading issues in 1900. Judge Tarvin, of Kentucky, responded to the toast, "Party and Principles." He was well received. When Col. Bryan was introduced the applause continued for several minutes. When quiet was restored Col. Bryan launched upon a discussion of the issues of the day in response to the toast, "Democracy."

MR. BRYAN'S ADDRESS.

Mr. Bryan said in part: "I congratulate this club upon having declared in emphatic terms that there shall be no retreat from the position taken by the Democratic party in 1896. The Chicago platform applied Jeffersonian principles to the questions then before the country. Every plank in that platform was a Democratic plank. Not one plank could be taken from the platform without injury to the party's chances of success.

"The trust question is not a new one, yet it has grown in interest and importance because trusts have grown in numbers. Attorney General Griggs is reported as saying, 'If anything is done to control trusts, it must be done by the States.' No one who has examined this subject will believe that State legislation is sufficient. The Federal government must deal with the trust as soon as its influence extends beyond the limits of the State in which it is organized. The President through his Attorney General can enforce the law now in existence. If the law is not sufficient he can recommend laws which are sufficient. If the constitution will not permit of the establishment of trusts, he can recommend an amendment to the constitution conferring upon the Federal government ample power to enable the government to destroy the monopoly principle in industry. The Republican administration is powerless to deal with the question, because it has mortgaged itself to trusts to obtain money necessary to carry the last election."

The latter half of Mr. Bryan's speech was devoted to Imperialism, with this conclusion: "Let us give to the Filipinos the same assurance of independence that we have given the Cubans. Let us assure them of our intention of establishing a stable government; which, when established, will be their government, not ours. Let us assure them we shall stand by them, like an older brother, and say to other nations 'Hands Off! Let this republic work on its own destiny.'"

FLOATING BODIES FOUND.

Institution Closes Its Gates After Successful Season.

ATTENDANCE GREATER

Than Any Year Since 1894; The Grand Closing Event Was an Impressive Scene.

THE CHILDREN'S CARNIVAL

The thirteenth annual session of the Kentucky Chautauqua Assembly came to a close last night. With the exception of the session of '91, it has been the most successful Chautauqua ever held in this city in point of attendance and receipts. More tents were taken this year than ever before. Except in the year above mentioned, the average attendance has been greater than that of any other year, and the attendance on the two days that always draw the largest crowds, the Fourth of July and College Day, was only surpassed in '91. The Chautauqua has made money this year, and if given the proper support, will continue to do so.

RAPIDLY IMPROVING

IS THE SITUATION IN BRAZOS VALLEY—FARMERS NEED SEEDS TO RESUME CROPPING.

GALVESTON, TEX., July 7.—(Associated Press.)—The situation in the Brazos Valley is rapidly improving. The river is falling. The rumor that five lives were lost near Sartaria, in Fort Bend county, lacks confirmation. The flood was the most terrible ever known in this state. There has been a perfect water spout a hundred miles above the Brazos river.

At Bookshire the relief committee opened a commissary to issue half ration per capita.

D. S. Cage, a prominent citizen of Brookshire, thinks it is not late to plant cotton, and has ordered a cartload of cotton seed, which he proposes to give all who will plant and undertake to cultivate a crop. He says corn of cotton, sorghum, kafir corn, June corn and potatoes can be raised now if these people had the seed, but they have neither seed nor money, and he suggests a contribution of seeds as well as to the most good.

SWINDLER

WHO IMPOSED ON THE WIDOWS OF GREAT MEN NABBED IN KANSAS CITY.

KANSAS CITY, July 7.—(Associated Press.)—E. H. Morse, representing himself as a disinterested agent of the Alaska Klondike Improvement and Mining Company, was arrested today on information furnished by Mrs. Richard P. Blanch, widow of the late Congressman. The police seized Morse's books, which, according to Chief of Police Hayes, prove him to be a clever swindler. It was Morse's plan to collect from the widows of prominent men whom he represented had bought certain mining stock of him and left a small balance unpaid.

CHAUTAQUA A MEMORY

qua, could only be enjoyed at great expense and trouble.

It is a rather regrettable fact that Chautauqua's chief patronage this year seemed to come from out of town people.

Lexington appreciates Chautauqua, but her people have allowed themselves to become somewhat apathetic in the matter of making it each year. The governing board has done as well as could be expected. With a little more interest taken in the Assembly and a little more done in its behalf by our citizens in general there would be no question of Chautauqua's success each year. For it would be fully justified. The program offered this year provided a very superior one. Of course if the management had had more financial resources to count upon, more high class attractions could have been secured and the program made a more uniformly successful one. But with the resources at hand a great deal was certainly accomplished. The lectures and addresses were of a high order. Vincent, Hillis, Doherty, Clark and others were heard for the first time this year but when it is to be trusted will be heard in the years to come. Superintendent Davidson, Business Manager Scott, President Fulton and the Board of Directors, and the many lecturers for gratification and congratulation for the outcome of the Chautauqua of 1899. It was a greater meeting. The reward their efficient efforts in 1900.

THE LAST DAYS' EXERCISES

A large and cultured audience assembled in the auditorium at eleven o'clock to hear Miss Kinkaid, Mrs. Kinkaid of this city, deliver her splendid lecture on "The Expression of the Day in Poetry." The excellent impressions which Miss Kinkaid made on Wednesday with her lecture on "Mrs. Humphrey Ward" was repeated on yesterday in the same hall. The lecturer illustrated the work of some of the poets to whom she referred by reciting passages from their works. At the close of the lecture Dr. Davidson came forward and said: "Now, let us have a Chautauqua salute for the glorious woman of your own state, and the handkerchiefs were waved with a marked enthusiasm."

In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Francis Labadie entertained a large audience for an hour with clever and pleasing dialogue and other chatty work, and then at 3 o'clock Mr. Alton Parkard of Dayton, O. again pleased and amused for an hour with his lightning sketches and puns. Mr. Parkard was at one time a said and is unquestionably one of the cleverest "chalk-talk" artists ever seen in Lexington.

It was indeed a grand closing that Chautauqua had in the evening. The carnival was what it was, and was a most enjoyable and interesting one. The lack of space precludes any attempt to give a detailed account of the delighted the large audience present. It was given under the direction of Mrs. Hillis M. Conlan of this city, and with the assistance of Miss Shultz, soprano, the Park Sisters, instrumentalists, Mr. Fellows, tenor, and Miss Harding, contralto. The following was the program of the carnival:

- "Come, Let Us With Our Children Live" - Chorus, Loyal Temperance Legion.
- "Was a Girl" - 20 girls.
- "Festiva of the Hills and Dales" - 16 boys and girls.
- "Lullaby Drill" - 12 May maidens.

OUT AFTER TROUBLE

GEORGE ZIMMERMAN WANTED TO MEASURE SWORDS WITH FILIPINOS, BUT HIS CHEST WAS TOO SMALL.

DR. FULTON HAS HAD UNUSUALLY SUCCESSFUL SEASON

At the opening of the entertainment last evening, Dr. Fulton, president of the Chautauqua, made a brief statement to the audience of the following facts:

"This has been one of the most successful meetings the Chautauqua has held on these grounds. While the attendance in several other years on 'great days' has been larger than on these days, the attendance from day to day has been larger than ever. We have had in attendance more friends from outside the city than in former years. We have sold more season tickets, and we shall be able to not only pay our expenses and the interest on our indebtedness, but also probably have enough left to materially decrease our debt. The normal meeting of the board of directors, held at the secretary's tent on the grounds, it was resolved to engage for another year the Rev. Dr. Fulton as Superintendent of Instruction and Mr. Charles Scott as business manager. These gentlemen have in their different places shown such enthusiasm and ability that the board voted them their hearty thanks. Mr. Fulton has been very generous in expressing his thanks to the newspapers of Lexington for their sympathy with the Chautauqua and for their efficient assistance in making this meeting the success it has been. The outlook for the coming year is bright, and we have reason to believe that the Chautauqua is so fixed in the affections of the people that they will not suffer it to die, but will keep it alive for many years to come. Health and a blessing to an increasing multitude of Kentucky people. At these different places shown such enthusiasm and ability that the board voted them their hearty thanks. Mr. Fulton has been very generous in expressing his thanks to the newspapers of Lexington for their sympathy with the Chautauqua and for their efficient assistance in making this meeting the success it has been."

CAUGHT NAPPING

POLICE RUN IN THE MEMBERS OF THE HOBO COLONY NEAR THE L. & N. TRACKS.

The hobo colony near the L. & N. Railroad tracks here outside of the city limits was raided Friday morning by Lieutenant Marshall and Officers Tilt and Stragg. Ed McMillan, Frank Davis, Tom Connors, P. H. Hillard, John Ryan, Charles Keeling, John Reed and Alex Travers were taken into custody and charged with loitering. This colony has been a source of much annoyance to the police and has caused much trouble to the residents of that neighborhood and many efforts have been made to break it up, but the men have escaped arrest until Friday, when they were caught napping.

BATTLE

IN MADISON IN WHICH FIVE ARE SAID TO HAVE ENGAGED—ONE MAY DIE.

RICHMOND, Ky., July 7.—Parties arriving here from the eastern end of this county give particulars of a bloody battle which occurred near Combs, Ky. The fight was between Jan Willis, Bob Freeman and Tom Coyle on one side and Rufus and Scott Baker on the other. The two Bakers were badly wounded. Scott Baker was shot with a double-barreled gun and will doubtless die, as the other were not badly hurt. The fight was the outgrowth of a drunken brawl, the parties having just taken a barrel of whiskey out of bond. Warrants have been issued. Everything is now quiet and no further trouble is expected.
