

NEWCASTLE, March 13, 1766.

The beautiful high bred horse VAMPIER,

GOT by Regulus, will cover this his first season for 30 s. a leap, at Newcastle. He won the 1400 guineas sweepstakes, for four year olds, at Newmarket; and beat Wildman's Pam, who had won several King's plates; also a match for 500 guineas. Vampier was sold by Lord Walgrave to the Duke of Bridgewater for 400 guineas, from whom he became my property, and cost me near as much as Juniper. He is full 15 hands 1 inch high, a fine bay, and in high order. Great care will be taken of those mares left, which may go at 5l. the season, if Gentlemen choose it.

JOHN SYME.

N. B. Mr. Pearson will receive the cash, and act for me in my absence.

POST OFFICE, Williamsburg, March 21, 1766.

THE public is hereby desired to take notice that the Hampton rider will arrive in Williamsburg every Tuesday and Saturday at noon, come through York town, and return to Hampton the same evening. That the Hanover rider will set off from Hanover town early every Monday and Friday, to meet the Hampton rider in Williamsburg at noon every Tuesday and Saturday, and return to Hanover town on the Wednesday and Sunday nights. That the James river rider will set off from Hanover town, by the way of Richmond and Warwick, to Petersburg and Blandford, and return to Hanover town on Tuesday and Saturday nights. That the Frederickburg rider will set out every Monday morning from Hanover town, by the way of Todd's bridge, and arrive at Frederickburg on Tuesday night, where he exchanges mails with the Northern rider, and returns to Hanover town every Thursday. That a rider will set off from Frederickburg every Wednesday, to be at Hobb's Hole that night, where he exchanges mails with a rider from Urbanna, and returns to Frederickburg on Thursday night. And that on Friday morning a rider proceeds with the mail to the Northward.

JOHN DIXON, D. Postmaster.

THE ship KING of PRUSSIA, James Glasford master, about 500 hogheads burthen, to be let on charter only for Glasgow. Also the snow JOHN, Archibald M'Millan master, burthen about 350 hhd. to be let on charter to any port of Britain. Apply to the subscriber at Norfolk.

NEIL JAMIESON.

RUN away from the subscriber in Northumberland, on Monday the 10th of March, 1766, a servant man named SAMUEL HOLMES, by trade a tailor, about 5 feet 5 inches high, stammers much in speech, speaks fast, has a very remarkable yellow place on the outside of his left knee, and on the irrtep of his other leg a very great scar, occasioned by ulcers, is bow legged, and rolls much in his walk; had on an old dark coloured cloth coat lined with white, his jacket had new forebodies of dark drugget, a pair of leather and a pair of black worsted stocking breeches, country made shoes, an old hat bound round, and I imagine will change his name and dress. Whoever apprehends the said runaway, and brings him to me, shall have 40 s. reward, if taken in this or any of the neighbouring counties, and if at a greater distance, 1l.

WILLIAM TATE.

N. B. He told his friend he intended to get on board some vessel going to James river, and then on board a man of war; it is therefore expected that all masters will use their utmost endeavours to discover such runaways, and be cautious of incurring the penalties for entertaining or carrying them out of the country.

WILLIAMSBURG, March 14, 1766.

JOHN BELL, Blacksmith,

intends removing from this place, in a few days, for the town of Portsmouth; where he will carry on his business in all its branches, make locks, hinges, jacks, &c. all kinds of SHIP and PLANTATION work, and grind razors. INTO THE Rights of the BRITISH Colonies,

I N T E N D E D

As an answer to "The regulations lately made concerning the colonies, and the taxes imposed upon them considered."

In a letter addressed to the author of that pamphlet. By RICHARD BLAND, of Virginia.

Dedit omnibus Deus pro virili portione sapientiam, ut et inaudita investigare possent et audita perpendere. LACTANTIUS.

WILLIAMSBURG, March 13, 1766.

COMMITTED to the Corporation prison a Virginia born Negro fellow named JAMES, about 30 years old, 5 feet 10 inches high, has on a blue coat, cotton waistcoat and breeches, check shirt, and says he belongs to William Cureton of Prince George. Also a Virginia born Negro wench named NAN, about 25 years old, 5 feet 1 inch high, has on a Virginia cloth waistcoat and petticoat, died yellow, an afnabrugs shift, and says she belongs to Nathaniel Reins of Prince George. The owners may have them on proving their property, and paying charges, of

WILLIAM LANE.

ALL PERSONS indebted to

JOSEPH ROYLE and company are desired to pay their respective balances, as soon as possible, to Mr. John Dixon at the Printing Office, Williamsburg; who is properly authorized for that purpose; by the executors of William Hunter and Joseph Royle, deceased.

CHESTERFIELD, February 24, 1766.

RUN away from the subscriber's forge, on the 22d instant, at night, three Negro men; one of them named STEPHEN, by trade a carpenter, Virginia born, a black fellow, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, very brisk and active, speaks quick, has a pleasant countenance, and walks very nimbly. Also NED, a fire-man, a black fellow, remarkably well made for strength, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, generally laughs when he speaks, has a large mouth, which is seldom shut, Virginia born, inclinable to be fat, has a sluggish walk, and broad shoulders. Also BRUMALL, a Gold Coast Negro, about the size and height of Ned; he is a fire-man, has remarkable broad shoulders, a roll in his walk, and had a hurt on his knee lately, from which he was lame a day or two before he went off; but whether any scar on it, I know not. Both the last mentioned fellows have scars on their arms, from burns which they got by melted cinders flying on them when at work. Brumall is a yellow Negro, and has a very pleasant countenance. I can give no particular description of their clothes; I do not know of their carrying any more than their suits of cotton and ofsnabrugs. I will give 5l. reward for each slave, if taken up in Virginia, and delivered to me; if in Carolina, 10l. for each.

on the propriety of imposing Taxes on the British colonies, for the purpose of raising a revenue by act of Parliament. Written by a Gentleman in Maryland.

RUN away from the subscriber, in Richmond town, a convict servant man, named JOHN TURNER, by trade a shoemaker, an Englishman, wears his own black short hair, and has a remarkable club foot, which makes him halt in walking; he is dressed in a suit of new gray clothes, and has several white shirts. He went off in company with WILLIAM BROWN, a blacksmith, a servant of Mr. RICHARD ADAMS's; and they stole a couple of horses, one of which is a likely bay. They also carried with them an Irish woman, named Nell Morgan. Whoever apprehends the said Turner, and conveys him to me, shall have 10l. reward, and if taken out of the colony 20l. Five pounds reward will be given for the blacksmith, if taken in the colony, and if out of the same 10l.

GEORGE DONALD.
